1 COOKIES WITH CHIC

The Home Baked Cookie Company's 'Gourmet Chic' line's Triple Chocolate & Almond is now available, $9.95. Visit www.thehomebakedcookie.com.

2 FISH STOCK

Homemade fish stock is a beautiful thing, especially when someone else makes it. Made by Martin's Seafoods in 500 ml packs for around $9.50, this version will keep on your shelf for a year. Call (02) 9818 6998 for stockists.

3 STONE'S COLD

We'd like a bit more bite, but Stone's alcoholic ginger beer has an appealing yeastiness, and makes a much subtler Moscow Mule. Available in four-packs, $10, www.angoves.com.au.

4 TARAMA SLAMMER

Fervour for all things Greek may have abated, but our cravings for Demcos' taramasalata ($4.90 for 250 gm) are still persisting, www.demcos.com.au.

5 SUMMIT SPECIAL

Shelf-stacking nightmare? Murder weapon? New personal-hydration solution? Evian's limited-edition 2005 glass bottle, $30, is a combination of all three. Call (02) 8878 6000 for more.

6 FIORI AMORE

Good zucchini flowers become easier to find with these neatly packaged little numbers (around $6 for six) from Brad's Produce, perhaps the only producer growing zucchini specifically for the blooms, www.bradsproduce.com.au.

Ginger beer with backbone, tempting taramasalata, simple stock, fabulous flowers, chic cookies and water with an edge.
